

Venue:

Istituto Nazionale di Geofisica e Vulcanologia, Rome Headquarters.

Via di Vigna Murata 605,
00143 Rome, Italy

How to reach Rome and INGV headquarters:

- By plane: Rome has 2 airports: Fiumicino “Leonardo Da Vinci” Airport (FCO) and Ciampino Airport (CIA).
 1. FCO is an international airport and most of airlines land there. FCO has a fast train service (Leonardo Express) with direct connection to Termini central railways station every 15 minutes.
 2. Several bus services are available to connect CIA with Rome city centre.
- By taxi: Taxi service is available in both FCO and CIA airport. Fixed fare from FCO to Rome city centre is 50 EUR, from CIA to Rome city centre is 31 EUR
- By train: Rome has a central station “Termini”, from which Metro Line B to LAURENTINA can be taken.
- By Metro: Metro Line B to the terminus LAURENTINA then take bus no. 765 in the direction of Arco di Travertino or the n. 702, both with a stop in front of the Institute (last stop on via di Vigna Murata).
- By bus:
 1. line 766 from Trastevere Station, or 218 from P.za S. Giovanni in Laterano. Stop on via Ardeatina near the ex-Dazio.
 2. line 765 from Arco di Travertino.

Suggested Hotels

- In the area:

1. Occidental Aran Park (15 minutes walking distance) – RECOMMENDED

2. Hotel Orto di Roma (25 minutes walking distance, 15 minutes by bus)

3. Hotel American Palace Eur (15 minutes by bus)

- In the city centre, but close to Metro B CAVOUR:

4. Grand Hotel Palatino

- Several Hotels and B&Bs are available in the INGV area

